DEDICATION

To a man who has come to be, to all who know him, the embodiment of fair play and good sportsmanship in every phase of college life, we the editor and staff dedicate the 1964 BOBASHELA.

His is a familiar, and always welcome, face—at a table in the Grill, in the classroom, and on the athletic field. He is dedicated to and works tirelessly for “his boys;” he is a capable and exacting instructor; he is sincerely interested in each and every student with whom he comes in contact.

Because he possesses a genuine concern for Millsaps College and works tirelessly for its best interests, and because he is the cherished friend of each of us—we honor in the 1964 BOBASHELA, DR. JAMES A. MONTGOMERY.

DR. JAMES A. MONTGOMERY

IN MEMORIAM...

In the early hours of Friday, November 8, 1963, death came to our friend, Dr. J. B. Price, quietly ending an active life of service to students of Millsaps College and to the people of Mississippi. The death of this teacher indeed saddened our community; it kindled in us a desire to pay tribute somehow to what he was and to what he did. We wanted to say something, but we found that our words and thoughts could not do justice to our knowledge of Dr. Price. It may well be that the proper tribute is not something that can be spoken, or written and published. Little that we could say or write would add to the tribute evident in another realm. With these thoughts then, we point to another realm, where tribute is far more meaningful and dynamic than mere words.

The tribute befitting J. B. Price is the noble quality of the attitudes, opinions, and outlooks of the people he influenced. The students with whom he had close contact remember well his quiet, but encouraging and challenging, manner. Many of these same students cannot forget that it was Dr. Price who guided them towards a career in medicine. There are today hundreds of medical doctors scattered throughout the South that were advised and personally encouraged while at Millsaps by Dr. Price. And it is particularly in the lives of these physicians that we view the very real tribute to J. B. Price. These physicians are serving their constituency with the same unselfish dedication with which Dr. Price served them—his students—when they were at Millsaps. Dr. Price was a scientist with a keen awareness of the needs of other people, and today we can look to most towns in Mississippi and find physicians who follow this tradition of meeting the needs of other people through the skilled application of science. It is then these men and their dynamic service that compose in a large part the living tribute to this man.

Millsaps students, both past and present, will long remember and reflect many of the character traits of Dr. Price. In his own way he helped pass on to us a desire to search for and propagate truth. He gave many of us a living definition of “hard-working” loyalty and definiteness of purpose.

The tribute that is worthy of Dr. Price, we suggest, is far more than words, but it is an active force working for human betterment in our world.

DR. J. B. PRICE

PRESIDENT

The sincere smile which greets his personal friends as well as visitors to the college, the ability to call each Millsaps student by name, the dignified manner of an administrator who has greatly aided in creating the Millsaps image of high scholastic ideals—these are three characteristics of Dr. Homer Ellis Finger, President of Millsaps College.

Dr. Finger accepted his present position in 1952. He received his B.A. degree from Millsaps. After earning his B.D. from Yale, Dr. Finger did advanced work at Union Theological Seminary and later was awarded an honorary Doctor of Divinity from Centenary.

ADMINISTRATION

To the administrators of the college is given the responsibility of maintaining the highest possible standards. The administrative offices in Murrah and the Student Personnel office in the Union are always open to the needs of the student. It is here that the endless details are processed, the problems of academic life are discussed and the programs of development are carried out.

ARRIVAL

Lock, stock and laundry bag!

New faces, new experiences, new courses, and new challenges—Millsaps opened the Fall Semester as students from all over the country converged on the campus. The Freshman Class had no sooner moved into the dorms, before it was time for orientation, placement tests and mixers. The returning upper classmen helped settle the new students, fraternity boys flocked to the grill to look over the girls and teachers began making out schedules.

"Better late than never, girls"

ORIENTATION

Tests and more tests.

The confusion of first moving on campus was surpassed only by the chaos of registration. Lines of registration were followed by lines to see faculty advisors, lines to sign up for courses, lines to turn in schedules, lines to pay tuition, and lines to get into lines. The easy way to register still hasn't been found. Even seniors wandered sullenly around waiting to get into an eleven o'clock class.

Listen Kid, I haven't got all day.

Paula Page and Steve Cranford, Orientation Chairmen, explain MAJOR FACTS to Bob Cox.

REGISTRATION

RUSH

"Just sit back and relax. Don't worry about smiling and forgetting names. We've all been through rush too, and we understand." Even though the rushees tried to relax, they couldn't. The hectic schedule of parties, the ever-decreasing number of invitations in each envelope, the increasing solemnity, and tears made Rush a trying time for both actives and rushees.

Sorority girls entertained their prospective pledges with both gay and serious skits: KD Hades, the Circus, Alice in Chi O Land, the Gold Rush, the White Taper Tea, and the Wizard of Oz.

For the boys it was smoker after smoker. Even those rushees who didn't smoke were smoking before the week was over.

Between parties everyone catches their breath.

They give some people tickets to the show, but maybe this is cheaper.

Let's see, do you know . . .

Oh no! They've moved the house.

Finally on Saturday morning, the girls signed their preference cards and at noon they received their bids. Rush was over, but there would always be the closeness, friendliness, and happiness found in the sorority.

That same morning a long thin line of boys could be seen filing toward fraternity row as they walked with calm excitement to the house of their choice. Awaiting their final dash were anxious actives letting loose with loud yells, beating on drums, and rushing to meet them with pledge pins handy.

Rush week is now over, as is orientation, and now the Freshman is a student ready to take his place in campus activities.

Is this the KA house?

What fraternity is this?

STUDENT SENATE

The Student Senate, Millsaps' official student legislative body, represents as nearly as possible, a fair cross section of the entire student body. Its weekly meetings serve as sounding boards for student problems and furnish a medium for the solution of such situations. Activities for the Student Senate this year have included such things as: new financial by-laws, a full appropriation for the campus literary magazine, Stylus, the re-activation of the Publications Board and the sending of representatives to M.I.C. Four standing committees co-ordinate Union affairs, social activities, special entertainment, and parking regulations.

Tommy Reuff, Vice Pres.; Marsha Beale, Sec.; Kathy Khayat, Treas.; Warren Jones, Pres.

ELECTIONS COMMITTEE: Gwen Ross, Jeffrey Newman, Joanne Edgar, Tommy Reuff, Dickie Roberts.

HOUSEMOTHERS: Mrs. Kate Robertson, Sanders-Whitworth; Mrs. Mary Fitts, Burton-Galloway; Mrs. Helen Daniel, Ezelle; Mrs. Maggie Kathy, Franklin; Mrs. Lena Tohill, Founders.

W. S. G. A.

The organization responsible for the regulations and restrictions of the women resident students is the Women's Student Government Association. The W.S.G.A. is an assembly of dormitory assistants, dormitory council members, housemothers and sorority representatives, advised by Mrs. Glenn Pate, Dean of Women. In addition, this year they have sponsored such activities as a welcoming coffee for Freshmen Women, a style show, a series of programs of guest panelists discussing "The Role of the American College Woman," and open houses in the women's dormitories.

THE EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE. SEATED: Kitty Perry, Fentress Boone, Elizabeth McGlothlin, President; Mrs. Pate, Dot

Boswell. STANDING: Joanne Edgar, Jeanne Burnet, Ann Rodgers.

"Deadline!" This one word was enough to strike terror in the lives of the BOBASHELA staff members as they worked feverishly to get copy sheets completed on time.

Having grabbed a pencil in one hand and a piece of paper in the other, the staff began the task of capturing the memorable moments of a fleeting nine months—a short year which held countless memories.

The Beauty Review, sponsored annually by the BOBASHELA, was one of the definite highlights of the school year.

Thus the annual emerged from one word after another, one problem after another, one solution after another. It was the staff's job to work together to produce a book full of lasting memories of college days.

"Bobashela," which is actually the word for "good friend," has been created to capture the life of Millsaps, 1964.

MAJOR FACTS

MAJOR FACTS is the pocket-sized "guide to living" on the Millsaps campus. This little book, which is edited by Millsaps students, is a miniature encyclopedia of traditions, general information, and rules and regulations ranging from academic requirements to the type of clothes that may or may not be worn on campus. The editor of MAJOR FACTS is under the advice of the Dean of Students and is appointed by the President of the Student Body.

Editor, Sam Cole

STYLUS

Editor, Bill Kemp

Millsaps College students have come to recognize the STYLUS as a priceless anthology of the literary works of campus short-story writers, poets, playwrights, and essayists. Fortunately there are two opportunities a year to become acquainted with this outstanding literary magazine. At a moderate price, the STYLUS provides a wonderful opportunity for Millsaps students to enjoy an inspiring potpourri of literature and to offer congratulations to their gifted authors.

Kay Barrett, Editor

PURPLE AND WHITE

The PURPLE AND WHITE, the Millsaps campus newspaper, is designed to supply students with a weekly record of college events. A second purpose is to provide an airing ground for current campus views on pertinent topics of college life.

Participation on the campus newspaper is on a voluntary basis, and the PURPLE AND WHITE serves as a laboratory and means of gaining valuable experience for those interested in journalism.

Hard work is required to turn out an accurate weekly account of what's going on around Millsaps. The entire P&W is to be congratulated on their outstanding achievements in the journalistic field in 1963.

MILLSAPS SINGERS

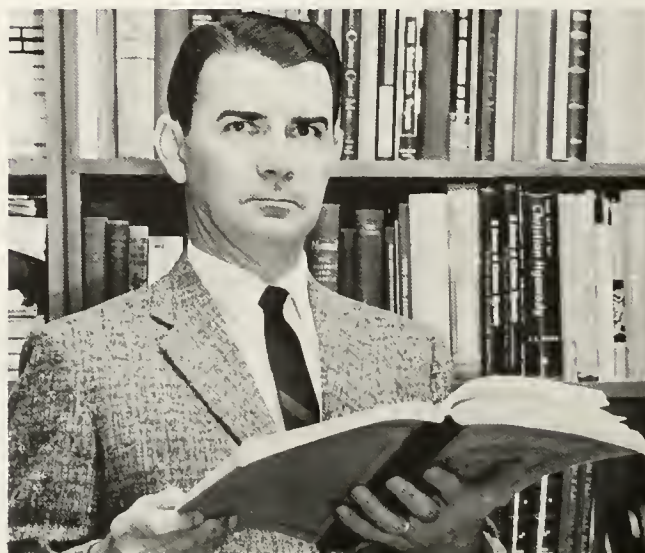

The Millsaps Singers is one of the most popular extra-curricular organizations on campus. It has represented Millsaps, not only throughout the state, but also, the nation.

The choir, directed by Mr. Leland Byler, sings music of all types ranging from popular medleys to classical works.

In addition to their campus performances, such as the presentation of a Thanksgiving program, Handel's "Messiah" and the annual "Feast of Carols," the choir toured throughout Mississippi and parts of Tennessee.

This year, for the first time, a small group from the Concert Choir known as the Troubadors, will tour Europe for approximately two months. It is a great honor to be chosen to go and Millsaps should feel pride in the accomplishments of this outstanding organization and Mr. Byler.

THE MADRIGAL SINGERS

The Madrigal Singers, Millsaps' smallest choral group, has a reputation for fine quality and each year this reputation grows. The Madrigals is composed of twenty voices and includes in its repertoire songs ranging from Renaissance to contemporary, secular to spiritual. Like the Concert Choir, the Madrigals present many programs for organizations here in the city, and in the surrounding area, as well as on campus. Director of the Madrigals is Mr. Richard Alderson.

Mr. Richard Alderson, Director.

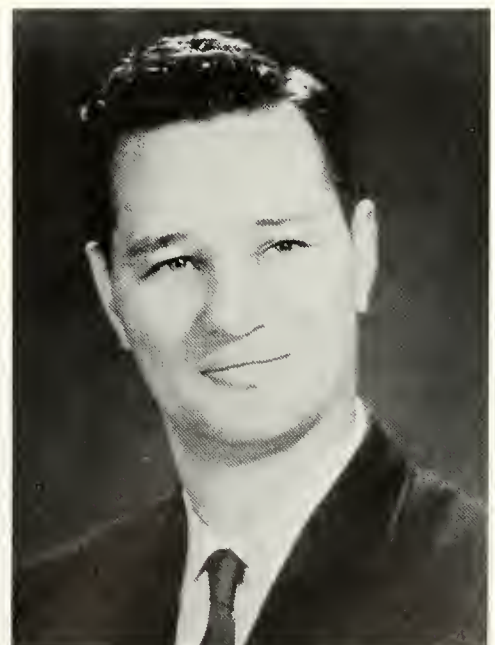

THE CHAPEL CHOIR

Mr. Joseph Rawlins, Director.

The primary function of the Chapel Choir, directed by Mr. Joseph Rawlins, is to sing at the weekly chapel programs. In the fall it joins the Concert Choir and Madrigal Singers in presenting the "Messiah" and at Christmas in the presentation of the Feast of Carols. The Chapel Choir is open to all who wish to participate.

CHRISTIAN COUNCIL

Mr. Woodward, sponsor of Christian Council.

The planning and co-ordinating of any interdenominational religious activity on campus is the responsibility of the Christian Council. The Council membership is comprised of the presidents of the campus religious groups and one elected representative from each group. The Council sponsors Holy Communion services (conducted in Fitzhugh Chapel by some clerical member of the faculty) on Wednesday mornings and on days preceding various holidays; each year it sponsors a Religious Emphasis Week, during which follows a theme selected by the Council. Another service of the Christian Council is the printing and distributing of the programs for the weekly chapel services.

YWCA

The Young Women's Christian Association is a national organization committed to Christian ideals and high standards. It has as its purpose the development of young women into better citizens and Christians. A sincere interest in promoting Christian ideals is its only membership requirement.

In the Millsaps chapter, each year the individual members adopt "little sisters" in the Methodist Children's Home. These little sisters are entertained with suppers, parties, and trips to special events such as the annual Feast of Carols.

MINISTERIAL LEAGUE

The Ministerial League is an organization for those students who are planning to enter the ministry. Membership in the League is open to all pre-ministerial students, regardless of denomination. It is designed to acquaint the pre-ministerial students with problems which he may face in the ministry and to give him an opportunity for practical experience. The responsibility of printing the schedule cards used in registration belongs to the Ministerial League, which also sponsors the annual Galloway award given to the pre-ministerial student who has prepared the best sermon of that year. Any other projects of the League are conducted in conjunction with the W.C.W.

BAPTIST STUDENT UNION

The Baptist Student Union on the Millsaps Campus serves as a liaison between the Baptist student and the Church. At its meetings, which are held weekly, the BSU presents programs to provide encouragement for spiritual growth and to challenge the student to live a better Christian life.

In addition to presenting weekly programs, the Baptist Student Union, in conjunction with the Baptist Churches of Jackson, holds a progressive dinner which provides a tour of the Jackson Baptist Churches.

CANTERBURY

The organization for those students on campus who are members of the Anglican Communion is the Canterbury Association. Canterbury dedicates its programs to worship, study stewardship, evangelism, and Christian social activity. The Association sponsors a variety of weekly activities which include the administration of the sacrament of the Holy Eucharist, Evening Prayer (The Litany, in Lent), and a weekly discussion session. During Lent Canterbury serves as a sponsor of weekly ecumenical services.

DISCIPLES STUDENT FELLOWSHIP

Disciples Student Fellowship is the campus religious organization of the Christian Church. The purposes of this organization are fellowship, information and worship. Its meetings are held each week on Monday evenings, and the regular program is followed by refreshments and general discussion. During the course of the year the group has several parties, including a special Christmas party. As its official project the organization has taken partial sponsorship of a child in the Church's orphanage in Atlanta, Georgia. Meetings of the Disciples Student Fellowship are open to students of any denomination.

METHODIST STUDENT MOVEMENT

The campus unit of the Methodist Student Movement is the Wesley Fellowship. Wesley provides fellowship through challenging programs to broaden their ideas. The projects of Wesley include weekly (each Wednesday night) visits to the Boys' Farm for recreation and short worship services, caroling (shortly before Christmas) at the Methodist and Baptist orphanages, and the annual pancake supper (held in the Spring) on the night before the S.E.B. election when each candidate presents his platform before the student body.

The Council is composed of the presidents and two representatives of each sorority on campus; Mrs. Pate is advisor to the Council. Panhellenic seeks to create a spirit of friendship at Millsaps. It compiles the rules governing rush pledging, initiations on campus, and general administration of Rush Week. In cooperation with the I. F. C. they sponsor the Greek Night Dance, held on the night of Pledging which completes Rush Week.

In 1962 The Panhellenic Council established a $100 scholarship to be awarded to an outstanding active sorority woman. Each year the Council contributes $50 for the school lunches of a Jackson Methodist orphan.

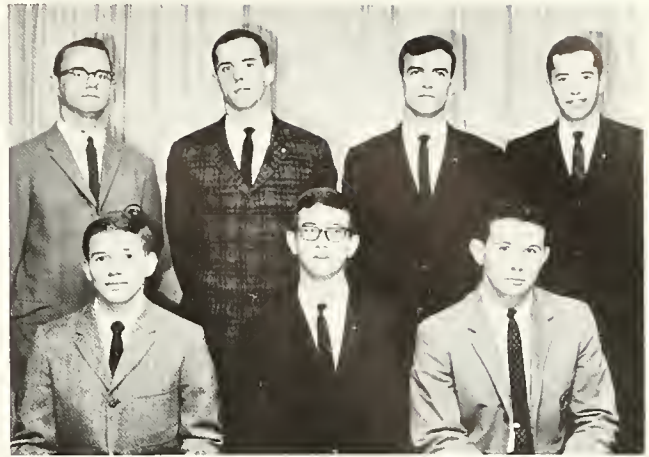

Offices on the Panhellenic Council are held according to rotation system which places a representative from each sorority in a different office each year.

INTER-FRATERNITY COUNCIL

The Inter-Fraternity Council, which is composed of two elected representatives of each fraternity, is designated to regulate and to govern the activities of the four fraternities on the Millsaps campus. The Council works to create a spirit of brotherhood among the fraternities. However, its biggest responsibility is the coordination of Rush Week activities. It also seeks to unify fraternity action in solving mutual problems and promote active cooperation between the college administration and individual fraternities. In November of this year the Inter-Fraternity Council participated in a city-wide Muscular Dystrophy Drive.

To be a Beta is to be a girl of many causes—some serious, some slight, some lost, some light. She wears her ruby and pink ribbons even when they clash; she sings in song fest in spite of a head-cold; she wins at tennis by default. But most of Beta's causes end triumphantly, as evidenced by the Scholarship trophy and the Lambda Chi field day cup.

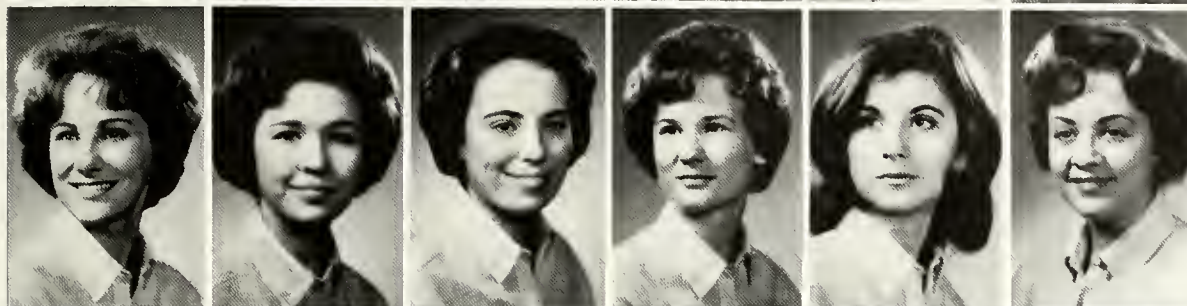

Betas value individuality and thus their members have various (and occasionally worthless?) causes.

Beta Sigs serve as presidents of two campus honoraries—Alpha Psi Omega and Pi Delta Phi. Other members swell the ranks of the Social Science Forum, Majorette Club, Sigma Lambda, Eta Sigma Phi and Theta Nu Sigma. There are Betas in the Young Republican Club, singing in Madrigals and Chapel Choir, and writing for the P & W. And the Betas are especially proud of the Best Freshman Actress Award given to one of their sisters by the Millsaps Players.

Mu chapter of Kappa Delta came to the Millsaps campus 'way back in 1897. Since that time the KD's have acquired a reputation for being outstanding women on campus. The Millsaps KD comes in assorted shapes and sizes, from the Big City or the small town. Her interests vary from knitting to foreign languages. But there are certain things that all KD's have in common. Her favorite flower is the white rose, and instead of the traditional black and white, she'd rather see newspapers, T.V., anything—in green and white. She draws the KD diamond on all her notebooks and never forgets to wear her pin to class, or anywhere she goes, for she's proud to be a Kappa Delta. KD's are busy girls and Kappa Delta plays a big part in their busy lives.

There are chapter meetings, charity projects, teas and open houses for special occasions during the year, and the White Rose Ball and Dagger Dance.

This year Kappa Delta is proud to claim among her sisterhood, the Homecoming Queen and two maids of the Court, two of the five top beauties, three class favorites, SEB treasurer and Editor of the BOBASHELA. A Kappa Delta was selected for membership in Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities, two were tapped to Sigma Lambda, and others are members in various honoraries on campus.

Fifty years ago in a little garage, a long-held dream became a reality, and Epsilon Chapter of Phi Mu Fraternity was established at Millsaps. Since that time Phi Mu has grown in size, ideals, and activities. After fifty years chapter growth caused a move from the neat pink and white cottage on North President Street to a new Colonial-style brick lodge.

This Golden Anniversary year was one of bustling activity with trips to the Little Red Schoolhouse, the Enchantress Ball, intramural games, informal parties, the annual fashion show, Philomatheans banquets, and workshops.

The effervescent Phi Mu spirit produced participants in every phase of campus life. Outstanding leaders took the form of the secretary of the Student Body and of the junior and senior classes and the presidents of two dormitories. Two Phi Mus were chosen as members of Who's Who and Sigma Lambda, while two were BOBASHELA beauties and favorite, a Homecoming Maid, a cheerleader, and the Lambda Chi Alpha Crescent Queen is also a Phi Mu sister.

Phi Mu also produced the Student Life editor of the BOBASHELA, the layout editor of the P & W, staff members for both publications, members of the debate team, the campus choirs, and numerous organizations on campus. Phi Mu is very proud of her sisters who have been tapped into the various honoraries on campus for their leadership and academic abilities.

Anywhere on Methodist Hill a Millsaps student might wander, he'll likely stroll past a man of Kappa Alpha Order. Upstairs in the Student Union the President and Vice-President of the Student Body, both brothers of the Order, can be seen at work, making decisions that so vitally affect the college community. Down the hall, the editor of MAJOR FACTS, the business managers of the BOBASHELA and P & W, and the assistant editor of the P & W are huddled. The sports enthusiast will notice the half dozen KA brothers heroically fighting the grid-iron battles of the mighty Millsaps Majors, or on the Majors' basketball and baseball teams. Elsewhere, a student will recognize one of the seven KA men who were chosen for Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities. Or he might see the Master Major or the President and Vice-President of the Senior Class.

Even in the quiet solitude of one's room, the radio blares forth with, "KA, Kappa Alpha, Ebenezer Travelers, Kah . . ." That's right, KAs are almost everywhere on this campus. But because they're the largest group on campus, what else could be expected?

"She has two dreamy eyes of blue . . ." These words are heard as the KA's serenade their Rose, Sandra Rainwater.

SOOEY PIG . . . KAPPA SIG! Kappa Sig started off another great year with a unique type of rush. We of Kappa Sigma decided to remain exclusive this year, but because there were some very outstanding rushees, we were forced to pledge only the top fourteen.

Sigma is proud to boast of its outstanding brothers this year. Rutledge, Football captain and Most Valuable Player; Rogers and Tarver were Soph. class Pres. and Vice Pres. respectively; Smith is "M" Club Pres. and Basketball Captain; Roberts was a cheerleader and BOBASHELA staff member; Kuebler received the O.J.'s Beauty Lotion Award; and Lewand won the "Yelling at Kahs Award." We are also proud of our three favorites, Shannon, Smith and Roberts.

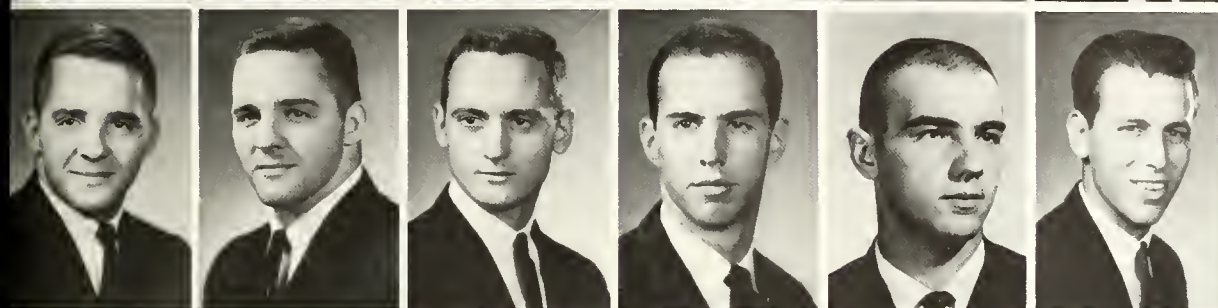

When the swimming pool is completed this summer, Sigma invites the campus for a swim. (Bring your own water.) Until then, we will see you at the Barn Dance.

Looking for a Lambda Chi? He may be the guy standing behind a lighting switchboard high in the Christian Center. Maybe he's the fellow emoting on the stage below. Look for him in the chambers of the Student Senate, in various honoraries, on numerous athletic fields and most certainly in the grill, complaining about the general quality of the coffee.

If you can't find him there, try 434 Marshall Street. (That's where they keep the Lambda Chi house.) There you'll find him watching Chet and Dave and Dr. Casey, playing cards, discussing weighty and not-so-weighty matters with his brothers.

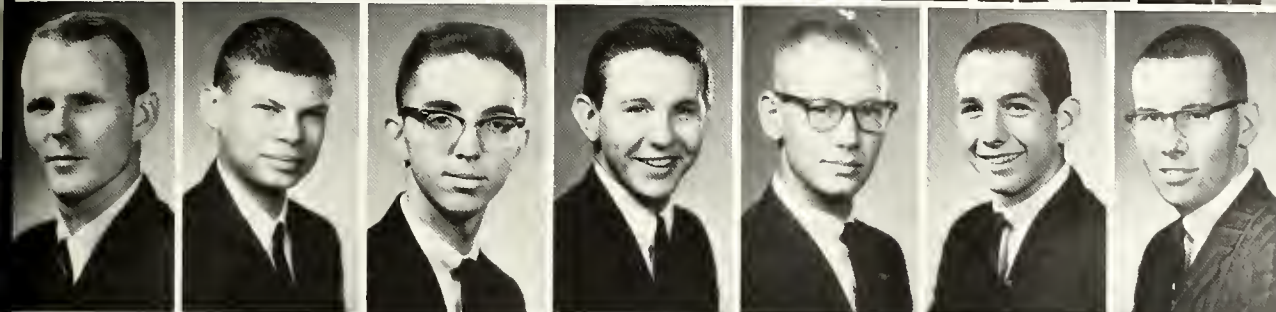

Stick around until he joins his brothers in song. Wait for the line about . . . "The Cross and the Crescent, it's the grandest thing." Notice the pride in his eyes.

Then you'll know for sure you've found a Lambda Chi.

"He rambled 'til he got the colors on . . ." The colors are garnet and gold; the fraternity, Pi Kappa Alpha. In 1905, thirty seven years after its 1868 founding at the University of Virginia, PiKA arrived at Millsaps College. Since then the residents of 424 Marshall Street have been well represented in campus activities, politics, honoraries, and social life.

The Pikes just seem to have a knack for social functions, as evidenced by the "Hell" party and the Cotton Ball where the Dream Girl of PiKA is announced.

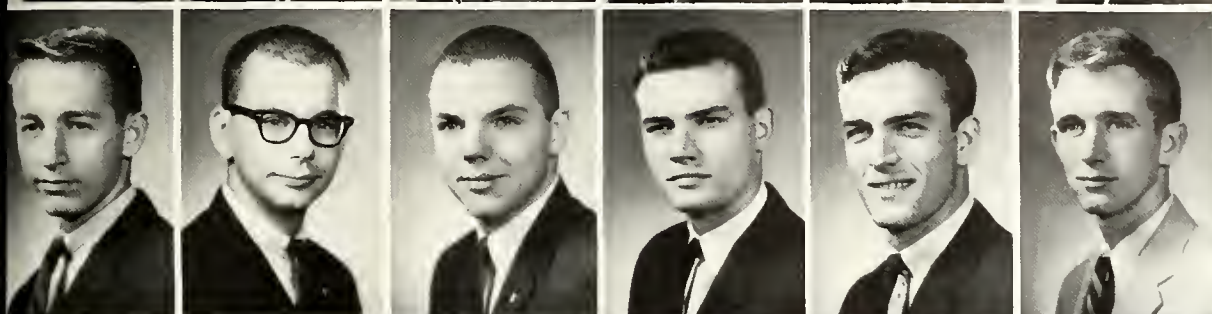

The Pikes are a fastidious few who have in their elite number, two class presidents, one class vice-president, the Chi Omega Owl Man, the President of Kit Kat, one favorite, members in A.E.D., Alpha Psi Omega, the I.R.C., and the president of the Inter-Fraternity. There are also Pikes on the P & W, the BOBASHELA, and the Stylus staffs.

This group is a living testimony to just what can be done with a sweatshirt and a subscription to Playboy.

1963 Season is Disappointment For Majors

The 1963 football season was a disappointment in many respects for both Major players and fans. Ending the season with a 1-7 record, Millsaps had little to cheer about through much of the year.

In the opening contest the Majors fell 29-14 to Arkansas A&M. The next outing was nearly disastrous as they came out on the short end of a 27-0 score.

In ensuing games the Majors fell to Harding 39-0, Austin 23-0, Maryville 22-0 at Homecoming, and Southwestern 27-6. The Majors finally broke into the win column with a 13-7 conquest of Livingston State.

Millsaps ended the season by dropping a 42-13 decision to powerful Ouachita on their home field.

Majors Top Livingston 13-7

Quarterback Alex Bass threw two touchdown passes to give Millsaps its only win of the 1963 season.

But offense wasn't the whole show for the Majors. Lewis Hatten and Bill Cherry playing in the defensive backfield saved the day a number of times.

Millsaps started its victory drive in the third quarter when the opening kickoff was taken, with Roger Lowery using a seldom seen pass on the return. Several plays later the payoff came when Jerry Drane gathered in a Bass pass for the Majors first score. The try for the PAT was bobbled and Livingston lead 7-6.

The Majors were not to be denied on this occasion, however, as Pat Barrett recovered a Livingston fumble on their 27 yard line. A few plays later Bass hit Bob Rutledge with a strike, Rutledge's PAT was good, and the Majors won 13-7.

Majors Fall 29-14 To Weevils

After making a strong go of it for three quarters, Millsaps' game Majors dropped the season opener to tough Arkansas A&M.

The Arkansas team scored first and led 6-0, but Jim Roberts pounced on a Weevil fumble and several plays later Alex Bass passed to Doug Greene for the touchdown and Greene booted the extra point to give Millsaps a 7-6 lead.

Each team scored again in the third quarter and Millsaps led 14-13 before the game-winning spree by the Arkansans stopped Millsaps' chances to capture the season opener. In the final analysis it was not superior play by the Weevils which gave them the game, but superiority in numbers which resulted in their victory.

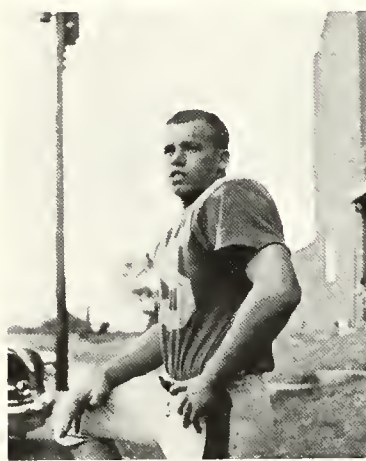

End John Gillis dives after a low pass with an opposition player.

Majors Post Top Record

"We have an experienced ball club with excellent ball handling, pretty fair shooting, and fair speed," Millsaps basketball coach described his team at the season's start. His description has held true and been exceeded as the Majors posted their best season since 1941.

Paramount in importance to the team this year were Charlie Smith, a hard-driving forward; Jack Ainsworth, a lightning quick guard; Fred Rendfrey, an able rebounder; Phil Converse, a demon on defense; and Forrest Goodwin, an excellent shot.

Center Fred Rendfrey holds the ball away from Redmond of Lambuth as Goodwin and Smith watch in the background.

Millsaps Cops Belhaven Trophy

The camera caught Millsaps' mainstay Phil Converse in the middle of a driving shot against William Carey.

Millsaps got the 1963-64 basketball season going with a bang as they swept through neighboring Belhaven's Invitational Tournament. In the first game the Majors faced Livingston State of Alabama and after gaining a wide margin in the first half, pulled out a 92-84 victory.

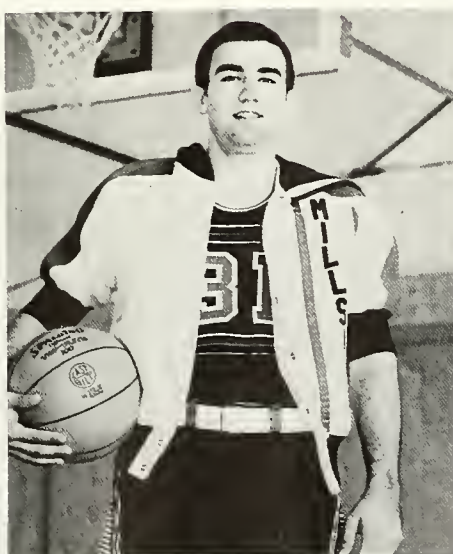

In the second encounter Millsaps faced Lambuth's Eagles, which proved to be a tougher foe. However, playing a superior brand of basketball, the Majors walked off with the game, 68-60 and thus became champions of Belhaven's first tourney.

From the looks on the faces of these Majors, it appears Millsaps is facing a difficult situation on the court.

Cheerleaders

Leading the Majors cheering section this year were: Kneeling, Lynn Rutledge and Sandra Black; Standing, Marilyn Stewart, Ford Williams, Dickie Roberts, Bob Bowling, Jimmy Hill, and Gwen Ross.

Track Team — 1964

After a year of inaction in 1963, Millsaps plans to field a track team this spring. Coach Thornton will handle the team this year.

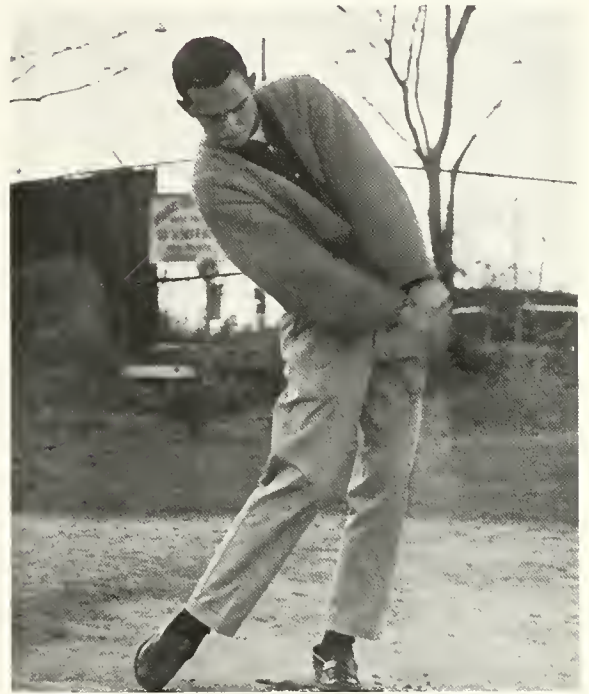

There are several performers who have had considerable experience and though the number of people to try out has been small, there seems to be a new enthusiasm developing at Millsaps for the spring sport.

Golf

The inclusion of golf at Millsaps allows those not interested in team sports to participate in varsity athletics. Under the guidance of Miss Mary Ann Edge, the team has done well in past years, as is evidenced by former Millsaps golfer Mary Mills, who won the 1963 Woman's National Open Tournament.

Third row: Don Mitchell, Marty Pearson, Tom Cooley, and Earl Wentworth. Fourth row: Bill Crosswell, Burnett Hull, Dean Shaw, and Rod Bartlett.

Millsaps' Jack Ainsworth is recorded in the middle of a swing against Belhaven in a game that Millsaps went on to win.

1963 Baseball

The 1963 Millsaps baseball team recorded a 4-10 record for the season. Coach James Montgomery was in charge of the 1963 edition, but in 1964 he is turning over his duties to Coach Jack Frost.

Though the Majors recorded wins only over Belhaven and St. Bernard, team members are looking forward to an improved team if adequate pitching can be found.

Millsaps slugger, Bill Cherry swats one in a game against Belhaven.

Kappa Sigma forward Doug Greene drives past Ward van Skiver and Scott Coffield of Kappa Alpha for a score in intramural basketball.

Boys' Intramurals

The Intramural sports program at Millsaps, under the direction of Coach Montgomery, adds to the development of a more well-rounded college community. Sports offered are volleyball, softball, basketball, tennis, and golf, so that each student can find something in which he excels.

All four fraternities and the Independents participate in the activities and competition is usually keen.

In 1963 the Kappa Sigmas won the Intramural championship and in the middle of the 1964 campaign were threatening to retain possession of the crown.

Scott Coffield and Bob Rutledge go high on a jump ball as George Pickett and Doug Greene get ready to control the tip.

Independent Jimmy Boynton returns a shot as KA Coburn Ott jumps to block the effort.

In volleyball action, Paul Miller goes up to swat the ball over the net.

HOME RUN? It could be as Lambda Chi Joel Levi takes a mighty swat.

Girls' Intramural basketball participants scramble for a rebound in an intra-sorority contest.

Girls' Intramurals

One of the ways to forget troubles and relieve tensions for Millsaps girls is to participate in Intramural sports. Miss Edge is in charge of the operation and does a fine job each year.

Trophies are awarded in the team sports of volleyball, basketball, and softball, while individual awards are made in tennis, badminton and golf.

The Girls' Intramural Trophy is awarded to the group with the most total points at the end of every school year.

Martha Byrd grimaces in anticipation as she prepares to send the volleyball flying back over the net.

Student Life

A new year begins with the occupation of the dorms. New friends and experiences await these freshmen in the days ahead.

Remember . . .

the first day—moving in, your roommate, Orientation, Rush;
the congregation of boys in front of the Union, passing judgment on the girls;
the drop you were asked to wear, then the pin;
the “hi’s” between classes;
those you loved in The Visit and those you met while working on My Fair Lady;
the fraternity and sorority parties;
the nights you burned the midnight oil;
the satisfaction of an “A” or the humiliation of an “F”;
the classes you went to, slept through, or just dreaded;
“Dead Week” and “Dex”;
your prayer before the exams and your “thank you” when you were through;
all your work with seemingly no reward, until . . .
your diploma.

Because of the strange new haircuts, the college bookstore receives a great many orders for Freshman beanies.

Rush Week at Millsaps culminates in one of the happiest and yet one of the most tearful occasions on campus—pledging.

Sally Embry and Chuck Halford, both of Memphis, won the Freshman Day Costume Contest.

"They did it, by Jove, they did it!"

First semester for pledges means night after night of study in order to make that 1.0 average needed for initiation.

Now do I look like the type that would get letters from a girl?

I know, Jerry, but don't you think that blue jeans, old tee shirts, and cowboy boots is carrying this comfort bit a little too far.

"She's laying eggs now, just like she used to . . ."

Hey wait! Is somebody going to the grill?

Well, I don't know . . . Big Toe says she can keep the room, but I'm taking my curtains, spread, rug and spraynet.

Delores Delgadillo from Nicaragua finds that living in Founders is quite an experience. Here she and her roommate, Clancy Denny converse in Spanish.

"Put on your coat and get your hat; Leave your worries on the doorstep." Beth Boswell sings for the Parade of Beauties.

"Please don't fall!", backstage beauties wish for their competitors on stage in the Beauty Review.

These judges had a hard time choosing the beauties.

Coaching from the sidelines comes from Polly and Larry as they try to persuade the crownbearer to leave the lovely Homecoming Queen.

The sight of the five lovely members of the Homecoming Court made Millsaps forget about the bitter weather and the disappointing score.

Anna Dennery and Beth Boswell added a little slap-stick and comedy to their musical number used in the Homecoming Talent Show.

The "brawny" Sigs also have hearts, these delighted children from the Methodist Home found out at the KS sponsored Easter Egg Hunt.

Really, I'm serious! It tasted just great!

Some people will do almost anything for money as these enthusiasts show in the unique Chi O Pledge Shaving Creme Fight!

Lynn knew this picture was being taken. She just didn't want it to look like she was camera hog.

But I KNOW somebody told me that Millsaps students don't drink!

We have HOW many cans of that shaving cream left? Oh good! I know you girls will be able to sell twelve cans each.

Pledging means more friendships made. And for the KD's it's a retreat that brings the girls closer together.

CONGRATULATIONS and BEST WISHES

Have you considered what it means to say, "I am an alumnus (or alumna) of Millsaps College"? More is involved than simply being able to wave a diploma in the face of a prospective employer.

Your Millsaps diploma means more than that. It suggests that you have a background which includes literature, religion, philosophy, languages, and science. It indicates that you have the foundation for becoming an educated person. Your Millsaps diploma will be respected so long as Millsaps sustains its reputation as one of the best.

It is for these reasons that no apologies will be offered when in future years you are asked to support your Alma Mater—through contributions, in positions of leadership in the Alumni Association, by becoming an informed spokesman for Millsaps.

You chose your college. Did you not also, in choosing, commit yourself to loyalty to and support of that college?
